15.____ A photocopy of your most recent tax returns.

16.____ Photocopies of birth, marriage, and divorce decrees.

14. ____ Arrest disposition- If you have any record of criminal conduct or have been arrested for any reason, at any age, even if the charges have been dismissed, sealed or expunged, the arrest will need to be addressed in the home study.

If you have an arrest record or a criminal history of any kind, call the Clerk of the Circuit Court in the county where the arrest/offense took place and ask for a certified copy of your disposition and court file or a certified letter stating they no longer have the records on file.

You will need to write a brief narrative explaining the arrest/offense and circumstances about the charges. Having an arrest record does not typically prevent a family from adopting a child.
